Congressman Bill Posey Presents:
2014 Congressional Art Competition
An Artistic Discovery

Melbourne, FL - Congressman Bill Posey has announced he will be kicking-off the 2014 Congressional Art Competition for high school students in District 8. This opportunity will enable students to enter a piece of artwork in “An Artistic Discovery,” the annual competition held in congressional districts across the nation.

Each participating student and his or her parents and teacher will be invited to an event starting at 10:00am on May 3, 2014 at the Richardson Center, Indian River State College, during which time the winning entry will be announced. All participating students are invited and encouraged to attend the awards presentation on May 3, 2014.

This year’s winner will have his or her artwork displayed in the Capitol in Washington, D.C., and artwork by the first and second runners up will be put on display in Congressman Posey’s Washington and Florida offices, respectively. To enter your artwork visit www.posey.house.gov or contact Pam Gillespie at 321-632-1776 no later than April 18.

Artwork can be entered in the competition and dropped off from April 21-25, 2014 at 3 locations: Brevard Cultural Alliance offices in the Government Center in Viera or Rep. Posey’s Vero or Titusville offices. Please call to make arrangements prior to drop off. No late entries will be accepted. Artwork will be on exhibit at the Richardson Center, Indian River State College from April 30 to May 3. Except for the top 3 winning artwork pieces, students and teachers may take their artwork home after the award presentation on May 3.
