Congressman Bill Posey Presents:
2012 Congressional Art Competition
An Artistic Discovery

Melbourne, FL - Congressman Bill Posey has announced he will be kicking-off the 2012 Congressional Art Competition for high school students in District 15. This opportunity will enable students to enter a piece of artwork in “An Artistic Discovery,” the annual competition held in congressional districts across the nation.

Each participating student and his or her parents and teacher will be invited to an exhibit during which the winning entry will be announced. This year’s winner will have his or her artwork displayed in the Capitol in Washington, D.C., and the first and second runner up will be put on display in Congressman Posey’s Washington and Florida office, respectively. To enter your artwork visit www.posey.house.gov or contact Pam Gillespie at 321-632-1776.
